University of Wisconsin Department of Emergency Medicine
Diversity Scholarship for Visiting Medical Students

Mission:
The University of Wisconsin Department of Emergency Medicine encourages underrepresented medical students (URM) seeking external emergency medicine rotations to apply for our Diversity Scholarship for Visiting Students. Our goals are to augment program awareness, increase program diversity, and provide support and mentorship for visiting medical students.

Program Benefits:
- $1500 stipend (used toward application fee, elective fees, transportation and lodging costs)
- Mentorship & Networking (assigned faculty & senior resident mentors)
- Guaranteed Residency Interview Opportunity
- Departmental Standardized Letter of Evaluation (SLOE)

Program Details:
- Rotations are four weeks in duration and are available to full-time fourth-year medical students who are in good standing and currently enrolled in an LCME-accredited U.S. medical school during the summer.

Application Process:
This competitive scholarship is open to underrepresented fourth year medical students who have expressed interest in applying to the University of Wisconsin Emergency Medicine Residency Program.
