Awards, April 8, 2021

Congratulations to everyone who presented at the virtual 2021 EM Research Forum on April 8th. We would like to thank all of our participants for an impressive showing of high quality and high impact research!

We would like to extend a special congrats and recognize the following UW award winners:

Michael Pulia, MD, MS: Best Overall Oral Presentation for his study "Comparison of Skin Surface Temperature Measurements between Patients with Cellulitis and Pseudocellulitis in the Emergency Department".

Christopher Ryba, MD: Best Resident/Fellow Presentation for his study "Coping Strategies Utilized by Prehospital EMS providers during the COVID-19 Pandemic".

Derek Steck (Shapiro Program Medical Student): Best Student Presentation for his study "Exploring Staff Understanding of Code Status and Treatment Limitations at UW Health".

Kudos

-Major kudos go out to Eddie Harwick, research coordinator and intern, for his acceptance to medical school at the Medical College of Wisconsin (MCW)! He plans to complete their Clinical and Translational Research Pathway to prepare himself for a career in academic medicine. In the future, Eddie hopes to contribute to the development of objective, diagnostic tools that improve health outcomes and preserve the patient-physician relationship. He is most excited for the opportunity to explore different procedural and non-procedural specialties. Congratulations and best of luck, Eddie!

-Kudos to Amber Sheth, Shapiro research scholar, who was awarded the Best Student Poster Presentation at the 2021 UW-Madison Global Health Symposium! Her poster, "Assessing emergency care needs of an indigenous community in rural Guatemala", was based on research conducted during the summer of 2020 through the Shapiro Summer Research Program with faculty mentors, Jim Svenson MD MS and Jessica Schmidt MD MPH. Congrats, Amber!

ACEP 2021 - Call for Abstracts

ACEP is now accepting abstract submissions for the Research Forum held during ACEP 2021 (October 25-28 in Boston, MA). This is a great opportunity to present your research at a national level! The deadline for submission is May 21, 2021 at 4PM CST.
