

Pediatric Emergency Medicine Section Chief

Exceptional opportunity for a Pediatric Emergency Physician (BC/BE) to help lead the faculty of the BerbeeWalsh Department of Emergency Medicine at the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine & Public Health in Madison, Wisconsin.

We are seeking applicants who are interested in furthering a career in academic emergency medicine. Specific leadership and/or program development opportunities exist, especially in the areas of residency, education, medical student education, and Emergency Medical Services (EMS).

EM faculty provide clinical services in the Emergency Departments (ED) of the University of Wisconsin Hospital and Clinics (University Hospital) and other UW Health approved sites. University Hospital is a busy, university-based, referral hospital; one of only two academic medical centers in the state and a Level 1 Trauma and Burn center for both adult and pediatric patients. EM faculty supervise EM and off-service residents, as well as medical students.

The successful candidate will join a faculty of both emergency physicians and pediatric emergency physicians. Responsibilities will include the clinical care of pediatric emergency department patients and time spent in education and teaching activities to medical students, residents and other learners in the academic medicine setting. Clinical research will be encouraged and should be anticipated as part of this role. Additional time will be devoted to administrative responsibilities.

Madison, the vibrant capital of Wisconsin and home of the University of Wisconsin, has the best of all worlds: natural beauty and outdoor recreation, stimulating cultural offerings, distinctive restaurants and shops, and a spirit of fun. Urban culture, natural beauty, small town charm.

A competitive salary structure commensurate with qualifications, relocation assistance, professional allowance (CME), and a comprehensive benefit package is offered. To inquire, send your curriculum vitae and cover letter to:
